“ I'll always remember my nanny anytime I see a garden, or a grandmother brushing her granddaughters hair, front porches especially when it rains. I'll remember her when anyone talks about God and faith! I always think of her when I see good done in the world she was always the best parts of my life.. growing up without her has been hard, but oh how I have felt her with me through it all! I do miss you, but we will meet again when heaven calls me home! I love you nanny! -Makayla
