“ The summer I was 15 years old, my mother and I followed Aunt Uldine and Caiphus on a drive to El Paso, Texas. It took us 3 days to get there because we had to stop each evening by 6 to have dinner in a nice “sit-down” restaurant. I thought we were super fancy. It was a grand adventure and Uldine kept us laughing, as she did all my life. I already miss hearing her voice as she and my mother would talk and tell stories.

“ I lived with my aunt for several months while waiting to move into the area. She was always so good to me and we had many wonderful conversations. I enjoyed her Christmas tradition to have her two sisters visit for lunch and put a puzzle together. There was always laughter and fun. I'll miss her.
