“ While I have not seen her in many years, Walla Mae was a huge part of my childhood in church. She was always the one to love on the kids and direct us to love Jesus. She was a beautiful soul and I'm grateful to have known her.

“ Sweet Nanny Mae, I am so glad that I had the chance to know you & spend many summer days with you & your grandchildren. You always treated me like I was one of your own. From playing with horses & goats to playing out in the barn. One of my most fond memories will be the day you took Katelyn & I out shopping for dresses. I was so excited to show my mom the dress you had bought me when she came to pick me up. I always loved getting to come to your house. You always had a sweet smile on your face & you always talked about the love you had for the Lord. You always fixed the best meals & made sure we never went hungry! Nanny Mae was truly one of a kind & you will forever come to my mind when I think of my childhood. You gave me some of the best & sweetest memories that I will forever cherish. You will forever be missed & loved. Thank you for always being so great to me 💕

“ Walla was so special to me. She was known for her dedication to the lord and teaching young children about Jesus. Walla was my nursery teacher growing up. If you were in nursery you were considered one of her babies and she never failed to tell you how much she loved you. She was out walla walla bing bang as she would say or walla walla koala ❤️. She will be deeply missed. We know where Walla is at, she is with Jesus. We have comfort in knowing that. Walla was one of the most influential people in my life. Give dad a hug for me my walla walla. We will see you again.

“ Walla Mae was the epitome of what a Christian should be. She was the most selfless person I have ever met. She loved her family so much. Especially her granddaughters. They were her life and they have so many precious memories of her. She was the most caring, giving Mother-in-law to me for 34 years. She holds a special place in my heart. Rest in peace sweet Walla Mae.

“ My nanny. Oh the memories I have with her.. I loved you from the moment I met you 28 years ago. You've always been the most serving lady to everyone else, now it's time for us to show you how much everything you did was appreciated, although you already knew it. If you ever got a chance to meet my nanny, she never forgot you. She loved everyone no matter who you were. She was so ready to meet her Lord and Savior, and now she's Home for good. I love you nanny, so so much.
